To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to recommend to you Seth Nwosu, a member of Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society, the oldest, most prestigious and largest honor society serving two-year colleges around the world. Seth was inducted into the Rho Pi Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa while attending Phoenix College. To be invited to membership in Phi Theta Kappa, Seth earned high academic standing with a class rank in the top 10%. Phi Theta Kappa requires members to maintain high academic standing for the duration of enrollment at the two-year college.

Phi Theta Kappa was established in 1918 by two-year college presidents. The Society's mission is two-fold: 1) to recognize and encourage the academic achievement of two-year college students and 2) provide opportunities for individual growth and development through honors, leadership and service programming. Membership in the Society reflects scholarship, discipline, determination, and an innate desire to succeed. Active involvement demonstrates servant leadership, communication skills, and emerging leadership talent.

Since its founding, Phi Theta Kappa has inducted more than 3 million members and chartered 1,285 chapters located in all 50 states and in U.S. territorial possessions, Canada, Germany, the Republic of Palau, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, the Federated States of Micronesia, the British Virgin Islands, the United Arab Emirates, and Peru.

In 1929, the American Association of Community Colleges recognized Phi Theta Kappa as the official honor society for two-year colleges.

Sincerely,

Rod A. Risley, Ph.D.
